

WHAT I MIGHT DO.....

JEANNE DAVIES

Hello, Hello? Who did you say this is? My Grandson! Which grandson – I don't recognize your voice. My oldest grandson? Well, you know I have two about the same age - is it Bryce or Rob?

O. K. Bryce but it just doesn't sound like you. How is your little sister, Amber, doing? You don't know? But your Mom said you were going by every day to check on her.

You've got something you need to tell me? O.K. what is it. You're in jail and you need some money? Well, that is a funny joke. You told me once that would never happen so who put you up to this? But I want to know how Amber is. What is the lady's name taking care of her? I want to check with her during the day and make sure Amber is doing o.k.
How's your new job coming. I've been going to call your Mother and find out.

What? Don't call your mother. But you know we talk every day. I'll tell her you and I had a talk today but you sure haven't told me much. She won't be very happy that you haven't been going to see Amber. Say, what about your girlfriend?

What was her name? Do you still see her? I sure did like her.

Bryce? Bryce? Well now that is funny. He called me but I guess he really didn't want to talk.

I don't know anyone named Bryce anyway or Amber so I guess that lad won't call back.
